2. Purchasing Photographs

The Racing Chronicle Photo Store website allows the purchase of photographs from the library of Horse Racing related images displayed on the site. These images are intended to give an indication of the final product and there may be slight variations in the following areas:

2.1 Colour - Due to the variations which can occur in the calibration of computer monitors and processing of photographic prints, the colours of the actual photographic print may differ from those displayed on the computer screen

2.2 Size - The images displayed on Racing Chronicle Photo Store website give an approximate indication of the final picture shown on the photographic print. Due to the differing height to width ratios of the respective print sizes available, some cropping of the image may occur to fit the size of the requested photographic print.

3. Purchasing Digital Images

Digital images are normally transmitted fourteen calendar days after the day on which the order is placed, when the cancellation period has expired.
